Historic South

With Women of Nebraska

March 8-14, 2020

Dear Women of Nebraska,

Old Man Winter always has a hard time letting go in the Midwest, but we have the cure for avoiding his grip! Join me on this getaway tour March 8 -14, 2020. I invite you along in an escape to the warmth and hospitality of the Old South.

We'll start by flying into Charleston S.C., and go back in time as we tour the Low Country, and see the unique style of architecture; catch the breezes off the bay; and rock away on the multi-tiered porches of southern mansions. The breezes that bring the sweet smell of Azaleas, Magnolias, Camellias, Jessamine and Narcissus, let you forget all about winter.

If some of Savannah's sights seem familiar, it might be because many movies have been filmed in this historic old city. Forrest Gump, Glory, The Longest Yard, and Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil, just to mention a few of the top ten filmed here. Walk the historic city squares under the Spanish Moss draped Live Oak trees or explore antique and gift shops on your free time.

We'll have professional guided tours and our own private motor coach that will whisk us between Charleston, Savannah, Beaumont, Jekyll Island and the oldest city in the U.S., St. Augustine Florida. Enjoy the southern charm and hospitality, along with gardens, antique shops, and of course great food!

Here are just a few of the highlights...A boat ride will take us out to Fort Sumter, where the first shots of the Civil War were heard. Enjoy a horse drawn carriage tour; an Afternoon Tea and tour at Mrs. Davenport's; relive the days of swashbucklers at Pirates' House Restaurant; Trolley Tours and did I mention Southern cooking?

New on our 2020 trip will be a visit to the Georgia Sea Turtle Center on Jekyll Island. The Center offers us a chance to learn about sea turtles and see rehabilitation in action with a host of interactive exhibits and experiences.

I hope you can join me on this trip. Whether you are a history buff, lover of antebellum architecture, gardens, southern cooking, bird watching, or just breathing in the salty, ocean air. This trip has something for everyone.

I'd love to have y'all share this adventure with me!

Our wonderful adventure begins as we fly to Charleston where we will spend our first two nights. Steeped in history and quintessentially Southern, the city's past is evident in its genteel charm and soul-stirring landscapes. There you will have time to relax and unwind. Tonight we will enjoy a welcome dinner with our local Tour Director and fellow travelers.
