Eat - Live - Love

with Women of the Midwest!

May 4-17, 2023

Dear Women of the Midwest,

If you have ever dreamt about a "foodie" tour to Greece, here it is!
Athens, Peloponnese, Naxos, and Santorini ...it doesn't get any better than this!

A silk-weaving monastery, golden honey, the world's finest olive oil, the best of the Mediterranean cuisine ...ordinary ingredients creating extraordinary experiences! Food reflects the celebration of life, and where there is a connection to real food, there is a connection to real life!

We follow the local pace each day, sampling the cuisine, the regional brews, and the daily customs. We learn of their colorful history and the people who made it so. From farm to table, we will savor the unique marriage of fresh ingredients & imagination, magically giving birth to delicious mouthfuls to eat and drink. Our accommodations have vibrant souls – like the "locals," each with their own unique story.

We will wander amongst the vineyards and wine barrels to sip and taste the exciting wines of ancient varietals. We will explore the myths and lore of legendary rulers, great warriors, and lost civilizations. We will discover unique products like nowhere else in the world, bursting with flavors from lava-rich soil and plentiful sun. Recreate the recipes of years gone by as we head behind the kitchen door to chop, cook, and indulge. Relax and unwind as you learn to appreciate an exceptional way of life ...the Greek way of life!

THIS is the way travel should taste!

Reserve your spot now on this fabulous trip to Greece. Come, join me, solo or two-by-two.

Joyfully,
Ann Bruntz, Ambassador
Women of the Midwest

May 4, 2023 - Thursday Traveling to Athens

Our charming adventure begins as we take an overnight flight to Athens. Enjoy in-flight entertainment and meal service as you start your Greek dream vacation.

May 5, 2023 - Friday Athens

Welcome to Athens! Upon arrival, we meet our private tour guide, who will be with us during the entire trip. We are off to experience some of the most incredible sights in history. On our way to Athens, we will stop at Cape Sounion, with the impressive Temple of Poseidon rising above the Aegean Sea. A seaside lunch is served before we head to Athens. Athens is one of the oldest cities in the world, full of myths, mysteries, and legends. The city is home to many sacred ancient sites, monuments, and landmarks - a fusion of old and new and a buzzing cosmopolitan metropolis. It is one of the most glorious cities in the world and the cradle of western civilization as we know it today. Founded seven thousand years ago, the city flourished in the fifth century BC when Athenian democracy was practiced in the Bouleterion (council chamber) and open discussion was encouraged in the Agora (marketplace). Check in to our hotel for an evening at leisure to relax and unwind. If you are still awake, take an evening stroll by the Acropolis, it's right next door. B (airplane) | L

May 6, 2023 - Saturday Athens

After a delightful breakfast, we head out to discover Athens. A short distance by foot takes us to the Acropolis, dominated by the Parthenon and built as a temple to Athena in the 5th century BC. From the top of the hill, you will see the Agora, where Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle strolled. Next, we will visit the stunning Acropolis Museum, where lunch is served. We will continue by motorcoach through the city to see the House of Parliament at Syntagma Square, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the Public Library, the University, and the Panathenaic Stadium, where the first Olympics of the modern era were held. The late afternoon and evening are yours to enjoy more of the city. Don't miss the old town "Plaka" with its numerous shops (open till late!), enjoy people-watching, and a local "meze" (plate with small bites), the best way to taste the local delicacies. B | L

May 7, 2023 - Sunday Corinth Canal - Epidaurus - Nafplion

After a hearty breakfast, we board our motorcoach and drive towards pretty Peloponnese. We will stop to admire the canal that connects the Gulf of Corinth with the Saronic Gulf in the Aegean Sea. Our second stop today is at the UNESCO World Heritage-listed site, the Ancient Theatre of Epidaurus, a 2,300-year-old stage with legendary acoustics from ancient times. This place will make a special impression as it also hosts the roots of all medicine and the cult of the God of Medicine, Asclepius. If you recall the snake wrapped around the physician staff, today's symbol of the medical profession, this is where it all began. Lunch is special and served in the shade of hundred-year-old olive trees. Enjoy the best local cuisine while learning about the "golden liquid" and the importance of olive oil. We will arrive at Nafplion, one of the prettiest cities in Greece. An ouzo tasting (a dry anise-flavored aperitif) is arranged tonight; cheers to our great group, and a good night's rest! B | L | T

May 8, 2023 - Monday Langadía - Ancient Olympia

Breakfast is enjoyed before we depart Nafplion for Ancient Olympia. A local mountain village is our backdrop for lunch and Greek coffee with the best baklava you have ever tasted! Arriving in Ancient Olympia in the early afternoon. Visit the birthplace of the Olympic Games. The Athletes met here for the first time in 776 BC, and this is where the Olympic Torch is lit every 4th year. This place has an exceptional aura; it feels like the games are still happening every day. The evening is yours to enjoy and relax. B | L

May 9, 2023 - Sunday Honey & Silk - Saint Theodora - Sparta

After a rich breakfast, we will take a short drive to a traditional honey farm. Klio will meet us, introduce us to her agricultural activities, and tell stories about her grandparents, who made their living from the delicious local honey. We will walk the garden and be guided through Klio's private collection, learn about the secrets of honey production, and taste the traditional sweets with honey prepared in front of us. We will continue our journey to experience a unique phenomenon; the church of Saint Theodora. An architectural paradox with seventeen large trees growing out of the roof. Still today, it is quite a mystery how this little 10th-century church, apparently without foundation, manages to withstand the weight of the trees. You will not see many tourists here. Lunch is served at the local watermill. Our last stop is in Kalamata, at a special monastery, the Abbey of the Nuns. Founded in 1796, it has been a local space for charity, a safe place during German and Italian occupation, and a shelter for those displaced during the Greek Civil War. A central courtyard filled with orange trees houses the nuns' living areas and a church. The monastery is famous for its silk production. We will visit the room where the nuns used to work and cultivate silk back in the day and the weaving room where you can see unfinished pieces on the looms. Silk products are still made, including silk headscarves known to be among the finest in the world, embroideries, small icons, and more, which you can purchase from the monastery shop. The next two nights are

Portara (Gate of Naxos)

spent in Sparta, in ancient times, a powerful town-state known for its brave soldiers. Set amongst vineyards and citrus-olive groves, "This is Sparta!" B | L

May 10, 2023 - Monday

Monemvasia - Mystras

At the tip of the Peloponnese's first leg is the unspoiled town of Monemvasia, a Byzantine castle-citadel strategically perched on a massive rock protruding from the sea. The history of the town of Monemvasia starts with its name; it derives from the words "moni" and "emvasia" which mean single passage. The name comes from the Venetians who saw that the only passage to the Castle Town of Monemvasia was through a paved walkway they built. Before this walkway was constructed, the only way to go to the town was by boat. Monemvasia is one of the most romantic places in Greece. A Medieval castle/Harry Potter-town, exclusively carved on the slopes of a rock. We will have time to explore on our own before lunch is served inside the citadel. Our last visit today is to the abandoned citadel of Mystras, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Once the last stronghold of the Byzantine Empire, today, the stones of its monumental gates, medieval houses, palaces, and churches lay silent. Enjoy an evening at leisure. B | L

May 11, 2023 - Tuesday

Naxos

An early rise, and we are off to Piraeus, the port of Athens, for our ferry crossing to the island of Naxos. The namesake capital (also called Hora) is a port town filled with whitewashed, cube-shaped houses and medieval Venetian mansions. The island offers everything from delicious food, local liquors, beautiful white marble, incredible Cycladic scenery, local crafts, and some of the best beaches in Greece. We will experience it all! Our three-night stay in Naxos will be something you will never forget! A local dinner is included. B | D

Santorini

May 12, 2023 - Wednesday

Naxos Island Tour - Marble Workshop

Breakfast at our own pace before we board our motorcoach to take an island tour. Experience local villages and beautiful scenery. We will also learn the technique of marble carving as we join a two-hour workshop where we will be introduced to the history of marble arts and the different types of tools. You will design and create a relief sculpture that you can take home with you. We will enjoy lunch at our tour guide's favorite tavern. It doesn't get much better than this. B | L

May 13, 2023 - Thursday

Taste of Naxos Tour - Greek Dances

We will enjoy a laid-back breakfast. Later, we will take a walking tour of Naxos Town (Chora) with tastings of the local delicacies. Cheeses, citrus liquor (kitron), and sweet pastries. You will fall in love with the picturesque narrow streets and local shops. Enjoy swimming in the crystal-clear waters this afternoon. Tonight, we have a special dinner arranged ...dance lessons included! B | T | D

May 14, 2023 - Friday

Santorini - Oia Sunset

Enjoy free time in the morning to swim or take a last stroll in Chora. We will take a short two-hour ferry ride to Santorini, a most magical island, a sparkling jewel in the Aegean Sea with its white-washed houses set against the backdrop of cobalt blue sea and famous for its black sand beaches. Molded by fire and sea, its majestic cliffs are still said to guard the secrets of Atlantis. Cameras out - this island is picture-perfect! We will check in to our hotel and the afternoon is yours to bask in the golden sunshine, relax and unwind in one of the most beautiful places in the world. We have arranged a tour of Oia in the evening to enjoy the spectacular sunset, dinner included! B | D

Love Greece!

May 15, 2023 - Saturday

Santorini - Food & Wine - Cooking Class

We set off to explore the wines and foods of Santorini. We stroll the ancient vineyards and discover the famous "kouloura," an ancient Phoenicians technique of growing grapes in baskets. We will savor four of the island's most remarkable wines, and then we will head to the kitchen to broaden our knowledge of Santorini's rich culinary treasures. Using seasonal and locally grown ingredients, our local chef challenges our notions of how certain dishes should look, taste, and smell, before we enjoy the results. B | T | C | L

May 16, 2023 - Sunday

Santorini - Athens

Enjoy a relaxed morning to soak in the last impressions of Santorini. Take a walk along the caldera (volcano), or do your last souvenir shopping. We will board our flight to Athens in the early afternoon and relax at our airport hotel tonight. A light dinner is served while we reflect on all the wonderful memories of a once-in-a-lifetime journey. Eat, Live, and Love Greece! B | D

May 17, 2023 - Monday

Traveling Home

All too soon, your vacation has ended. Depart from Athens airport with plenty of time to check in for our flight and clear security. You may do some last-minute shopping at the duty-free stores before boarding and flying west across the Atlantic Ocean back to the United States. B
