GREECE

Eat, Live, Love!

with Women of the Midwest!

May 2-15, 2024

Dear Women of the Midwest,

If you have ever dreamt about a “foodie” tour to Greece, here it is!
Athens, Peloponnese, Naxos, and Santorini ...it doesn't get any better than this!

A silk-weaving monastery, golden honey, the world's finest olive oil, the best of the Mediterranean cuisine ...ordinary ingredients creating extraordinary experiences, and foods reflecting the celebration of life. And where there is a connection to real food, there is a connection to real life; let's live it up in Greece!

We follow the local pace each day, sampling the cuisine, the regional brews, and the daily customs. We learn of their colorful history and the people who made it so. From farm to table, we will savor the unique marriage of fresh ingredients and imagination, magically giving birth to delicious mouthfuls to eat and drink.

We will wander amongst the vineyards and wine barrels to sip and taste the exciting wines of ancient varietals. We will explore the myths and lore of legendary rulers, great warriors, and lost civilizations. We will discover unique products like nowhere else in the world, bursting with flavors from lava-rich soil and plentiful sun. We will recreate the recipes of years gone by as we head behind the kitchen door to chop, cook, and indulge.

Relax and unwind as you learn to appreciate an exceptional way of life ...the Greek way of life!
THIS is the way travel should taste!

Reserve your spot now on this fabulous trip to Greece. Come, join me, solo or two-by-two.

Joyfully,
Lisa Anderson, Ambassador

May 2, 2024 - Thursday Traveling to Athens

Our charming adventure begins as we take an overnight flight to Athens. Enjoy in-flight entertainment and meal service as you start your Greek dream vacation.

May 3, 2024 - Friday Athens

Welcome to Athens! Upon arrival, we meet our private tour guide, who will accompany us during the entire trip. We are off to experience some of the most incredible sights in history. On our way to Athens, we will stop at Cape Sounion, where the impressive Temple of Poseidon rises above the Aegean Sea. A seaside lunch is served before we head to Athens. Athens is one of the oldest cities in the world, full of myths, mysteries, and legends. The city is home to many sacred ancient sites, monuments, and landmarks - a fusion of old and new and a buzzing cosmopolitan metropolis. It is one of the most glorious cities in the world and the cradle of Western civilization as we know it today. Founded seven thousand years ago, the city flourished in the fifth century BC when Athenian democracy was practiced in the Bouletarion (council chamber) and open discussion was encouraged in the Agora (marketplace). Check in to our hotel for an evening at leisure to relax and unwind. If you are still awake, take an evening stroll by the Acropolis; it's right next door. B (airplane) | L

May 4, 2024 - Saturday Athens

After a delightful breakfast, we head out to discover Athens. A short distance by foot takes us to the Acropolis, dominated by the Parthenon and built as a temple to Athena in the 5th century BC. From the top of the hill, you will see the Agora, where Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle strolled. Next, we will visit the stunning Acropolis Museum. Lunch is served at a local tavern before we continue by motorcoach through the city to see the House of Parliament at Syntagma Square, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the Public Library, the University, and the Panathenaic Stadium, where the first Olympics of the modern era were held. The late afternoon and evening are yours to enjoy the city. Don't miss the old town "Plaka" with its numerous shops and small churches. Enjoy people-watching and a local "meze" (plate with small bites), the best way to taste the local delicacies. B | L

May 5, 2024 - Sunday Marathon - Thorikos Theater

After a hearty breakfast, we board our motorcoach. Our first stop is at the nearby Marathon, where the Ancient Marathon race originates. Around the corner, we find the Thorikos Theater. It is the oldest known theater in the world since it was built around 525-480 BC. Our guide will tell you the history and traditions connected with theater (drama is a Greek word, by the way), and you will understand the importance of Ancient entertainment. Let your imagination wander as we take a closer look at this magical site! We will return to Athens for lunch at one of our favorite restaurants. It's Easter Sunday in Greece, and you will have time to enjoy the city and people celebrating in the afternoon and evening. B | L

May 6, 2024 - Monday Langadía - Ancient Olympia

Breakfast is enjoyed before we depart for Ancient Olympia. A local mountain village is the backdrop for lunch, followed by Greek coffee with the best baklava you have ever tasted! Arriving in Ancient Olympia in the early afternoon. Visit the birthplace of the Olympic Games. The Athletes met here for the first time in 776 BC, and this is where the Olympic Torch is lit every 4th year. Indulge in the exceptional aura of Ancient Olympia; it feels like the games are still on. The evening is yours to enjoy and relax. B | L

May 7, 2024 - Tuesday Honey & Silk - Mystras - Sparta

After a rich breakfast, we will take a short drive to a traditional honey farm. Klio will meet us, introduce us to her agricultural activities, and tell stories about her grandparents, who made their living from the delicious local honey. We will walk the garden and be guided through Klio's private collection, learn about the secrets of honey production, and taste traditional sweets with honey prepared in front of us. We will continue our journey to Kalamata to visit an exceptional monastery, the Abbey of the Nuns. Founded in 1796, it has been a local space for charity, a safe place during German and Italian occupation, and a shelter for those displaced during the Greek Civil War. A central courtyard filled with orange trees houses the nuns' living areas and a church. The monastery is famous for its silk production. We will visit the room where the nuns used to work and cultivate silk back in the day and the weaving room where you can see unfinished pieces on the looms. Silk products are still made, including silk headscarves known to be among the finest in the world, embroideries, small icons, and more, which you can purchase from the monastery shop. Lunch is in Kalamata today, and our last stop is the abandoned fortress of Mystras, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Once the last stronghold of the Byzantine Empire, today, the stones of its monumental gates, medieval houses, palaces, and churches lay silent. We will relax and enjoy our evening at leisure in Sparta, set amongst vineyards and citrus-olive groves. B | T | L

May 8, 2024 - Wednesday Monemvasia - Nafplion

At the tip of the Peloponnese's first leg is the unspoiled town of Monemvasia, a Byzantine castle-citadel strategically perched on a massive rock protruding from the sea. The history of the town of Monemvasia starts with its name; it derives from the words "moni"

Portara (Gate of Naxos)

and “emvasis,” which mean “single passage.” The Venetians discovered that the only passage to the castle-town of Monemvasia was through a paved walkway. Before this walkway was constructed, the only way to enter the town was by boat. Monemvasia is one of the most romantic places in Greece. A Medieval Harry Potter town, exclusively carved on the slopes of a rock. We will have time to explore on our own before lunch is served inside the citadel. We will arrive in Nafplion, one of the prettiest cities in Greece. A fun food-and-walking tour is up tonight. Taste the famous “ouzo” (a dry anise-flavored aperitif) and other delicacies of the area. Cheers to our great group, and a good night’s rest! B | L | T

May 9, 2024 - Thursday

Epidauros - Olive Farm - Naxos

We depart Nafplion and head towards Piraeus to board our ferry to Naxos in the late afternoon. Our first stop today is at a UNESCO World Heritage-listed site, the Ancient Theatre of Epidauros, a 2,300-year-old stage with legendary acoustics from ancient times. This place will make a special impression as it also hosts the roots of all medicine and the cult of the God of Medicine, Asclepius. If you recall, the snake wrapped around the physician staff is today’s medical profession symbol. This is where it all began. Lunch is special and served in the shade of hundred-year-old olive trees. Enjoy the best local cuisine while learning about the “golden liquid” and the importance of olive oil. Before reaching Piraeus, the port of Athens, we will stop to admire the Corinth Canal that connects the Gulf of Corinth with the Saronic Gulf in the Aegean Sea. Then, we are off to the island of Naxos. The namesake capital (also called Hora) is a port town filled with whitewashed, cube-shaped houses and medieval Venetian mansions. The island offers everything from delicious food, local liquors, beautiful white marble, incredible Cycladic scenery, local crafts, and some of the best beaches in Greece. We will experience it all! Our three-night stay in Naxos will be something you will never forget! B | T | L

Santorini

May 10, 2024 - Friday

Taste of Naxos Tour - Greek Dances

We will enjoy a laid-back breakfast. Later, we will take a walking tour of Naxos Town (Hora) with tastings of the local delicacies. Cheeses, citrus liquor (kitron), and sweet pastries. You will fall in love with the picturesque narrow streets and local shops. Enjoy swimming in the crystal-clear waters this afternoon. Tonight, we have a special dinner arranged ...dance lessons included! B | T | D

May 11, 2024 - Saturday

Naxos Island Tour

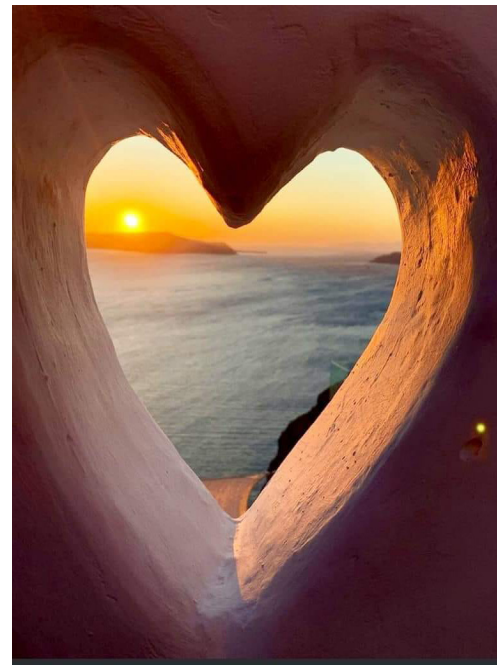

Breakfast at our own pace before we board our motorcoach for an island tour. Experience local villages and beautiful scenery. We will also learn the techniques of local ceramics as we join a two-hour workshop where we will be introduced to the history of local art and the different types of clay. You will design and create your own souvenir that you can take home with you. We will enjoy lunch at our tour guide’s favorite tavern. It doesn’t get much better than this. B | L

May 12, 2024 - Sunday

Santorini - Oia Sunset

Enjoy free time in the morning to swim or take a last stroll in Hora. We will take a short two-hour ferry ride to Santorini, a most magical island, a sparkling jewel in the Aegean Sea with its white-washed houses set against the backdrop of the cobalt blue sea and famous for its black sand beaches. Molded by fire and sea, its majestic cliffs are still said to guard the secrets of Atlantis. Cameras out - this island is picture-perfect! We will check in to our hotel, and the afternoon is yours to bask

Love Greece!

in the golden sunshine, relax and unwind in one of the most beautiful places in the world. We have arranged a tour of Oia in the evening to enjoy the spectacular sunset, dinner included! B | D

May 13, 2024 - Monday

Santorini - Food & Wine - Cooking Class

We set off to explore the wines and foods of Santorini. We stroll the ancient vineyards and discover the famous “kouloura,” an ancient Phoenician technique of growing grapes in baskets. We will savor four of the island’s most remarkable wines, and then head to the kitchen to broaden our knowledge of Santorini’s rich culinary treasures. Using seasonal and locally grown ingredients, our local chef challenges our notions of how certain dishes should look, taste, and smell before we enjoy the results. B | T | C | L

May 14, 2024 - Tuesday

Santorini - Athens

Enjoy a relaxed morning to soak in the last impressions of Santorini. Take a walk along the caldera (volcano), or do your last souvenir shopping. We will board our flight to Athens in the early afternoon and relax at our airport hotel tonight. A light dinner is served while we reflect on all the wonderful memories of a once-in-a-lifetime journey. Eat, Live, and Love Greece! B | D
