Our tour offers a delightful mix of group events and free time. You will see the highlights like Statue of Liberty, Ground Zero, Radio City Music Hall, Grand Central Terminal, and the New York Public Library as well as some of Broadway's biggest hits. Plus, you will have plenty of free time to discover YOUR New York. I'll help get you to the places you want to see.

In addition, a native New Yorker will share history as well as personal insight into life in NYC.

Let's Go to NYC!

Show Time!

Say "Cheese" ...Cake!

November 21, 2024 Thursday

Our wonderful journey begins as we fly to the Big Apple, New York City.

Upon arrival, we will be greeted by our local New York City tour guide, who will introduce us to the Big Apple.

We arrive at LaGuardia Airport, and then our motor coach will whisk us off to Manhattan, where we will begin a panoramic city tour of the Big Apple. Our native New Yorker guide will introduce us to some of the city's splendors, and we'll get our first glimpse of the Statue of Liberty and walk Ground Zero.

Check into Millennium Broadway Hotel, a deluxe hotel located right in the heart of the theatre district. Time to relax and enjoy your first New York-style dinner (pastrami on rye, anyone?)

If you are still awake, join Morrie for a subway ride to the Staten Island Ferry for beautiful views of Manhattan and the Statue of Liberty. The evening skyline of Manhattan is unequalled by any other city in the world (weather permitting).

Boxed lunch is included today.

November 22, 2024 Friday

Time to enjoy your breakfast.

At 10:00 AM, join Morrie for a walking tour of the theatre district. He'll share funny stories of Broadway divas, hits and flops, and even throw in some ghost stories (all true!).

The remainder of the day is for leisure. You are in the heart of Manhattan Midtown, and the opportunities for sightseeing are endless. You can utilize your MetroCard to move around; the Subway is a great and fast way to navigate through the city.

Tonight, we take a short walk to our first Broadway show (we will notify you approximately 120 days before departure).

Breakfast is included today.

November 23, 2024 Saturday

Breakfast is enjoyed at your own pace.

At 10:00 AM, join Morrie on a walking tour of Grand Central Terminal and the New York Public Library.

At Grand Central, Morrie will take you to the Whispering Gallery and show you where a missile was displayed in the middle of the commuter congestion. A quick jaunt down the block takes you to the beloved library, where you can see the original stuffed animals that inspired the Winnie-the-Pooh stories.

Morrie will lead the group back to the hotel.

The rest of the day is free at leisure. Less than half an hour from our hotel, you can step into one of the coolest markets in the world, the Chelsea Market, in the Meatpacking District. And it's impossible to visit New York without doing at least a little bit of shopping. Whether you're looking to purchase or casually stroll through, this urban shopping mall has everything you want to see, from groceries to flea markets.

The Meatpacking District is a hip commercial area on the far west side. It's home to the Whitney Museum of American Art, high-end designer clothing stores, and a stretch of the High Line, an elevated park built atop former railroad tracks. At ground level, the cobblestone streets are filled with trendy restaurants and clubs that have taken over the cavernous spaces once occupied by the namesake meatpacking plants.

If you love to walk, we highly recommend returning to the hotel via the High Line. Once destined for demolition, luckily, the community rallied together to repurpose it instead, creating the park you can experience today. But the High Line is more than a park - it is a public space where you can view art, walk through gardens, savor delicious snacks, or just people-watch, while enjoying a unique perspective of the city. Built on the historic, elevated freight line, the High Line is really a wonderful place to stroll. To walk the entire length (1.45 miles) takes around 30 minutes.

If you love museums, the MET (Metropolitan Museum of Art) is the museum to visit. Don't forget the gift shop; it's probably the best in the world!

Tonight, a short walk from the hotel will take you to your second Broadway show of your own choice. We will notify you of your options approximately 120 days before departure.

Breakfast is included today.

Sunday

Enjoy breakfast with your fellow travelers.

At 10:00 AM, we will take a short walk to Radio City Music Hall - the greatest showplace on Earth with jaw-dropping gorgeous architecture. It is also the home to the Rockettes, superstars, and camels! Upon opening its doors for the first time on a rainy winter's night in 1932, the Radio City Music Hall was proclaimed to be so extraordinarily beautiful as to need no performers at all. The first-built component of the massive Rockefeller Center, the Music Hall, has been the world's largest indoor theater for over eighty years.

Remarkable Radio City

We will experience the Spectacular Christmas Show.

After the end of the show, stroll back towards the hotel or continue exploring the neighborhood around Radio City. We are just around the corner from St. Patrick's Cathedral. Join Morrie as he visits the Neo-Gothic-style Roman cathedral, a prominent landmark of New York City.

The remainder of the afternoon is at leisure.

Tonight, we meet for a fun farewell dinner at a nearby famous restaurant. Cheers to our group and the greatest bite of the Big Apple!
