Dear Women of the Midwest,

Calling all food enthusiasts! Please join us on an epic culinary adventure.

We can all be California Girls for one dreamy week with our gal pals in So Cal. Imagine a fully international foodie experience, listening to ocean waves, eating leisurely dinners with your traveling friends, and viewing the stunning Pacific coast by train. Was it Californian Clint Eastwood that said, "Bake My Day"?

We are wonderfully excited to be able to partner again with Curt Tucker for a culinary adventure through coastal California. If you were able to join the Rose Parade Tour in 2023, you know the quality of Curt's craft. If you were unable to join that trip, please read the rave reviews on our Facebook page.

This journey promises nothing less than an explosion of flavors; let's take a trip to enjoy our favorite foods! Fresh-baked bread and pastries, homemade pasta, cold-pressed extra virgin olive oil, sweet balsamic, delightful wines, and other delicacies from around the world are the highlights of this trip. You'll experience this foodie tour while taking in the stunning coastal views on the train from Santa Barbara to Oxnard, business class, of course, and visiting iconic locations like Hearst Castle.

October 13-18, 2024, join us for a sunny respite, put your toes in the sand, indulge in international cuisine, and toast to another exquisite experience with Women of the Midwest.

I can't wait to welcome you!
