Historic South

Southern Charm!

with Women of the Midwest

March 27 - April 2, 2025

Dear Women of the Midwest,

Join me as we take a step back in time to places steeped in southern charm and hospitality, rich in history and tradition, and fertile with lush gardens. Experience a simpler time as we visit quaint towns with cobblestone streets adorned with historic homes and gardens, old-fashioned craft and antique shops, and unparalleled landscapes. Absorb the breathtaking beauty and sweet spring aromas of the ornamental magnolias, camellias, and azaleas as they boldly burst free from their long winter sleep and drench the spring air with the fragrance of romance and less hectic times.

Engage your tastebuds with the incredible southern cuisine, abundant with local favorites. Experience the very soul of the historic South as we enjoy trolley rides and horse-drawn carriages or even take a stroll through the quaint neighborhoods, exploring life through the eyes of our great American ancestors. Savor the appreciation of the incredible uniqueness of the antebellum architecture, the picturesque streets, and the courtyards of years gone by.

And don't forget about the beautiful sandy beaches and coastline surrounding us throughout this trip!

I hope you will consider joining me and other like-minded women as we travel solo together on this remarkable journey to the historic South. You are guaranteed to meet new acquaintances, some of whom may very well become your newest close friends and travel companions! Take a chance on adventure! It is a win-win opportunity!

Yours in friendship and travel,
Barb Wallingford, Ambassador

Traveling to Charleston

Our wonderful adventure begins as we fly to Charleston, SC. Upon arrival, we meet our local tour director and transfer to our hotel, where we will spend our first two nights. Originally founded as Charles Towne in 1670, this cultured and refined city is a beautifully preserved treasure. Steeped in history and quintessentially Southern, the city's past is evident in its genteel charm and soul-stirring landscapes.

Time to relax and unwind. Tonight, we will enjoy a welcome cocktail with our local tour director and fellow travelers. C

March 28, 2025 - Friday

Charleston Sightseeing

This morning, we will visit the Edmonston-Alston House. Despite the ravages of the Civil War, the Earthquake of 1886, and numerous hurricanes, the Alston family pieces remain in place much as they have for over 150 years. Notable in the collection is an original print of the Ordinance of Secession, portraits, the dining room table, gas lights, mirrors, and exquisite interior woodwork.

This afternoon, we will enjoy a Charleston City Tour. Built on a peninsula, Charleston has remained a beautiful port city for over 300 years. Preservation and Southern gentility are a way of life here. We will see the Historic District, Citadel, and Battery Park.

Tonight, we will enjoy a Welcome Dinner at a popular local restaurant in Charleston. B | D

March 29, 2025 - Saturday

Beaufort - Savannah

We will enjoy breakfast and then head out to visit Middleton Place, home to America's oldest landscaped garden and a National Historic Landmark.

It began in 1741 and took ten years to complete the terraces, lakes and camellia alleys. Tour the home and stable yard with its craft displays.

Then, depart for the historic port city of Beaufort, a quaint 1711 town with narrow tree-lined streets and historic homes. Enjoy a charming Carriage Ride through town.

Next, we will travel to the fascinating city of Savannah, America's first planned city, whose entire restored center - more than 1,000 buildings - is a National Historic Landmark.

We will check in for a two-night stay. Enjoy free time this evening to enjoy a local restaurant or shopping on your own. B

March 30, 2025 - Sunday

Savannah Sightseeing

Breakfast is served, and then it is time to explore Savannah. We will tour the restored Mercer-Williams House Museum

Magnolia

Beautiful Fountains

Green Fried Tomatoes

Boardwalk

Angel Oak Tree

Camellia

designed by New York architect John S. Norris for General Hugh W. Mercer. Construction began in 1860 and was subsequently interrupted by the Civil War, and eventually completed in 1868.

Next, enjoy a Savannah City Tour. We will see the 20 original squares, all landscaped with oaks, azaleas, fountains, and statues. We will drive by the Old Cotton Exchange, River Street, and Madison Square of General Sherman's "March to the Sea" fame. Enjoy time on your own this afternoon to see the sights of John Berendt's Midnight in the Garden of Good & Evil and stroll the historic cobblestone streets.

Tonight, join us in enjoying southern cuisine at a fine local restaurant in Savannah. B | D

March 31, 2025 - Monday

St. Simons Island – Jekyll Island
After a filling breakfast, we travel south to the Golden Isles of Georgia. We stop to visit St. Simons Island, known for its salt marshes and sandy beaches. We will view the famous Christ Church and St. Simons Lighthouse, which was destroyed during the Civil War and rebuilt in 1872. St. Simons Island has been voted America's Favorite Romantic Town; you will understand why. Lunch is enjoyed at St. Simons Island.

In the afternoon, we will arrive on Jekyll Island, a former hunting reserve for America's top millionaires. Goodyear, Pulitzer, and Rockefeller all built elaborate "cottages" here. We will surround ourselves with rich history and true Southern hospitality as we check in at Jekyll Island Club Hotel. A wealth of dining venues, a variety of activities, and direct access to the National Landmark Jekyll Island Historic District. The evening is at leisure to enjoy this beautiful property. B | L

April 1, 2025 - Tuesday

Jekyll Island
After a delicious breakfast, we will take a guided trolley tour of the island, including the historic district with the Indian Mound Cottage, the Mosaic Gallery, and the Faith Chapel. The afternoon is yours to walk the beach and enjoy the resort leisurely. Visit the Georgia Sea Turtle Center, an educational and rehabilitation facility where you get a chance to learn about sea turtles and see rehabilitation in action.

Tonight's farewell dinner is served in the Jekyll Island Club's Grand Dining Room, a venue of social and historical significance that has welcomed titans of industry, star-of-the-stage, and resort guests for over a century. This will be a night to remember! B | D

April 2, 2025 - Wednesday

Traveling Home
After a relaxing breakfast, it is time to leave our hotel and head to the airport for our flight back home. Our memories of the most charming journey of the South will enrich our home-going as we return home to share our adventures. B
