NORWAY & SWEDEN

with Women of the Midwest!

July 4-16, 2025

Dear Women of the Midwest,

There are many ways to see Scandinavia: by train, cruising, driving ... Our tour is an awesome combination of it all, so if Scandinavia is on your bucket list, then spoil yourself and join me on this once-in-a-lifetime journey to the Lands of the Midnight Sun. Let's experience the exhilarating landscapes of Norway and stunning Sweden together. Rough and rocky coastlines are dotted with cosmopolitan cities showcasing the famous Scandinavian design, tucked between medieval houses and vibrant-colored wooden homes. These countries near the top of the world pride themselves in being some of the world's most civilized, educated, and tolerant societies.

Norway - vast and wild. Home to dazzling deep blue to emerald green fjords, snow-dusted alpine peaks, grinding glaciers and crashing waterfalls ...it is a kaleidoscope of nature at its very best. This country is a number-one attraction and top many bucket lists.

Sweden - wholesome and healthy. Built on a group of 14 islands and a unique blend of ultra-modern style, Stockholm, Sweden's capital, is a spectacular city and one of northern Europe's oldest recorded towns. Compact and laced together with 57 bridges, the city is a mosaic of unique areas each with its own character. A Royal Palace, paper-thin cobble-stoned streets in a 13th-century medieval Old-Town, museums, posh shopping boulevards, gourmet markets, bohemian boutiques and outdoor cafés galore all set against the backdrop of a glittering blue Lake Malaren meeting the Baltic Sea.

If all this sounds as exciting to you as it does to me, then come join me on this Scandinavian summer fairy tale adventure.

Sincerely,
Barb Wallingford

Traveling to Norway

Our adventure begins as we take an overnight flight to Oslo. Enjoy in-flight entertainment and meal service as you travel to this very special destination.

July 5, 2025 - Saturday Oslo

Welcome to Norway! Oslo is the capital of Norway, the “Viking Capital,” founded in 1040. With its location by the Oslo Fjord, it is home to many fascinating museums and beautiful green parks full of sculptures. In the city center, you will find the majestic Karl Johan pedestrian street and the impressive opera house. Upon arrival at Oslo airport, we will meet our local tour director and driver. We will take a short drive outside Oslo to visit Hadeland Glassverk, the oldest glasswork company in Norway, founded in 1762 and still in operation. We will take a tour of Hadeland Glassverk, and lunch is served at the cozy restaurant. We then arrive in the center of Oslo, check in to our hotel, and enjoy an evening to relax and unwind. L

July 6, 2025 - Sunday Oslo

Breakfast is enjoyed before we head out to learn more about Oslo. We are off for an orientation tour where you get to admire the Royal Palace, the National Theater, the Parliament, the Opera House by the waterfront, and the medieval Akershus Fortress. Lunch is served at a local cafe before visiting the Kon Tiki Museum, where we will experience Thor Heyerdahl’s world-famous expeditions across the Pacific Ocean on the balsawood raft in 1947.

Up next is the open-air Norwegian Folk Museum showcasing life in Norway from 1500 to the present. Among the 160 buildings, the Gol Stave Church, dating from 1200, is one of the five medieval gems at the museum. We return to our hotel in the late afternoon to enjoy dinner. B | L | D

July 7, 2025 - Monday Oslo

Breakfast at your own pace and an entire day to experience Oslo and the surroundings on your own. Enjoy the local shops (find your favorite Troll), markets, and cafes. Stoll Vigeland Park with its stunning sculptures, take an Oslo Fjord sightseeing cruise or take a short train ride to Holmenkollen to check out the world-famous ski jump hill and museum (try the ski jump simulator... if you dare!). B

July 8, 2025 - Tuesday Bergen by Train

Breakfast is served, and our bags are packed*. Today, we will take a scenic train journey from Oslo to Bergen (approximately seven hours). Cameras out; the landscapes and sceneries are stunning! We arrive in “The Capital of the Fjords” in the afternoon in time to take a walk around the center and harbor. Dinner at our hotel. *Our bags are transferred separately; you will only carry a light handbag. B | D

July 9, 2025 - Wednesday Bergen

After a hearty breakfast, we take a morning tour of Bergen and experience Bryggen, the historic harbor district and one of North Europe’s oldest port cities on the west coast of Norway. It was established as a center for trade by the 12th century. In 1350, the Hanseatic League established a “Hanseatic Office” in Bergen. They gradually acquired ownership of Bryggen and controlled the trade in stockfish from Northern Norway through privileges granted by the Crown. Bryggen has been on the UNESCO list of World Cultural Heritage sites since 1979. A concert is enjoyed at Troidhaugen, at the Edvard Grieg Museum. Edvard Grieg is widely considered one of the leading Romantic era composers, and his music is part of the standard classical repertoire worldwide. Lunch is served before we take the funicular to the top of Mount Fløyen (1,000 ft. above sea level) for a stunning view of the city and the surrounding fjords. Tonight awaits a delightful salmon dinner. B | L | D

July 10, 2025 - Thursday Myrdal, Flåm, Sognefjord Cruise

Ahead await two of the most famous adventures in Norway: Flåm Railway and a Sognefjord cruise. We board one of the most exceptional railroads in the world from Bergen to Flåm via Myrdal, with breathtaking views at every curve. With rivers cutting through deep ravines, waterfalls tumbling down precipitous mountainsides, and white peaks with small farms clinging to steep slopes. A journey on the Flåm Railway is a trip through Norwegian nature ...oh, what a joy! In Flåm, we embark on a two-hour mini-cruise of the Nærøy and Auerland Fjords - both branches of the Sognefjord, the longest and deepest fjord in the world. Our motorcoach will meet us in Gudvangen and transfer us to our hotel for the night. On the way, we will stop to visit the Viking Village Njardalheim, a stunning open-air museum

Sognefjord

showcasing life like the Vikings used to live when they were not busy at sea. Dinner is enjoyed at our local hotel. B | D

July 11, 2025 - Friday

Lillehammer, Hamar

Our journey continues eastbound to Lillehammer and Hamar. We will visit the Maihaugen Museum, Norway's largest open-air museum outside of Oslo. The 200 buildings offer superb cultural experiences, numerous exhibitions, and several places to eat. Garmo Stave Church is located at the top of the hill near the entrance to the Museum. The excellent wood-building techniques and wood-carving traditions of the Vikings, used in the construction of ships and houses, were further developed and are often seen in stave churches. Garmo is an excellent example. Tonight's dinner is served at our local hotel in Hamar. B | D

July 12, 2025 - Saturday

Central- and South Sweden, Örebro

This morning, we will cross the border between Norway and Sweden as we continue our Scandinavian adventure. We will stop for lunch in Karlstad before arriving in Örebro, in time for a visit to the Örebro Castle. The castle began its days in the 14th century as a stronghold with a prison before morphing into a palace during the reign of King Gustav Vasa. Today, some rooms are used as classrooms for pupils from Karolinska High School. Don't miss the gift shop. You can find fun souvenirs to bring home, such as magnets, books, candles, toys, and even good storytellers. Tonight's dinner is at our hotel, and the night is yours to enjoy Örebro. B | L | D

Traditional Smörgås

July 13, 2025 - Sunday

Uppsala, Stockholm

Before reaching Stockholm this afternoon, we will swing by Uppsala to tour this beautiful city. Uppsala Cathedral was built 750 years ago, around 1270. St. Erik's reliquary, the Cathedral's major artifact, was moved here from the former Cathedral in Old Uppsala as early as 1273. The Cathedral is the burial place of Swedish royals like King Gustav Vasa. Uppsala is also known for Uppsala University, founded in the 15th century. Arriving in Stockholm, we will take a boat sightseeing tour, "Under the Bridges of Stockholm." This is the perfect way to see the city! Step aboard and be guided to the most famous parts of the city. We travel under twelve bridges and even pass through the lock that connects the Baltic Sea to Lake Mälaren. You will see the inner city, Old Town, Södermalm, Lilla and Stora Essingen, the new area Hammarby Sjöstad, and the green parks of Djurgården glide by while you relax. In the late afternoon, we will check in to our hotel and enjoy dinner. B | D

July 14, 2025 - Monday

Stockholm

After a filling breakfast, it's time to learn more about Stockholm. We will take a four-hour tour by motorcoach and by foot to visit the Stockholm City Hall, famous for its grand ceremonial halls and unique pieces of art. It is also the venue of the Nobel Prize banquet held on December 10 each year. Lunch today is the traditional Smörgås served at one of the oldest restaurants in Stockholm from 1630. The Vasa Ship Museum is next. The Vasa ship

Old-Town Stockholm

capsized and sank in Stockholm in 1628. After 333 years on the sea bed, the warship was salvaged, and the voyage could continue. Today, Vasa is the world's only preserved 17th-century ship, and the Vasa Museum is the most visited in Scandinavia. The remainder of the afternoon and evening are yours at leisure. B | L

July 15, 2025 - Tuesday

Stockholm

Today, you will have a day off to explore more of Stockholm on your own and gather your last impressions of this stunning city. Anyone up for ABBA The Museum? In this interactive museum, you can become the fifth member of ABBA by performing on a large stage. Or how about a bike ride through the city? Or maybe just hang out and enjoy a "fika?" Fika means making time for friends to share a cup of coffee (or tea) and a little something to eat. Tonight, we will enjoy a farewell dinner at a restaurant close to our hotel. B | D

Traveling Home

All too soon, your vacation has ended. Transfer to Arlanda airport in plenty of time to check in for our flight and to clear security. You may wish to do some last-minute shopping at the duty-free stores before boarding and flying west across the Atlantic Ocean back to the United States. B
