Travel Solo Together

THE ULTIMATE MARITIMES

Nova Scotia, New Brunswick
& Prince Edward Island

With Women of the Midwest!

August 5-16, 2025

Dear Ladies,

By popular demand, I invite you to join me as we embark on an enchanting journey, named for good reason ...Ultimate Maritimes," home to stunning landscapes and vibrant culture. We will enjoy twelve days of extraordinary beauty and adventure with an array of inclusions, including twenty-two meals, and three- and four-star hotels, that make this tour an incredible value.

Together, we will explore the charming city of Halifax, where we can visit the historic waterfront and the iconic Halifax Citadel National Historic Site. We will take in scenic drives, soaking in breathtaking coastal views and the beauty of rugged landscapes. We will wander through picturesque fishing villages, experience the rich Acadian culture, and visit the stunning Peggy's Cove with its iconic lighthouse.

We will also explore the majestic Bay of Fundy, home to the world's highest tides, and the unique rock formations at Hopewell Rocks. Whale watching is on the horizon and we are hoping for a view of at least a few of the twelve species of whales that frequent the area in August!

And let's not forget the delicious seafood - fresh lobster and scallops await us!

Let's Travel Solo Together to Nova Scotia; I can't wait!

Yours in adventure,
Jennifer King, Ambassador

August 6, 2025 - Wednesday

Halifax & Peggy's Cove

After an inviting breakfast, we will kick off our day with an engaging city tour of Halifax, beginning with a stroll through the beautiful Public Gardens. In August, you will see stunning dalia, phlox, elderberry, climbing clematis, and popcorn plants! Next, visit the Halifax Citadel National Historic Site. In the heart of downtown Halifax, this strategic hilltop fort offers a commanding view of Halifax Harbour. Step back to 1869 and immerse yourself in the social and military history of Halifax with the 78th Highlanders and the 3rd Brigade Royal Artillery. Learn about the changing roles of the fort and visit the Army Museum. Today, enjoy a leisurely lunch at one of Halifax's many excellent restaurants. In the afternoon, embark on a scenic drive to Peggy's

Peggy's Cove Church

Cove, renowned for its picturesque lighthouse and stunning coastal views. Peggy's Cove Lighthouse is one of Nova Scotia's most well-known and may be the most photographed in Canada. Located in this quaint fishing village, this lighthouse was built in 1915. Take time to explore the charming village and capture memorable photos. Before returning to Halifax, enjoy dinner at a local restaurant near Peggy's Cove, savoring delicious seafood and regional dishes. B | D

August 7, 2025 - Thursday

South Shore Touring

Delve into the stunning South Shore of Nova Scotia, beginning in Chester Basin with a Salty Dog Sea Tours vessel. Enjoy refreshing salt air and beautiful coastal views, with the chance to spot local wildlife. You can enjoy lunch on your own at Oak Island Resort today. Next, continue to Lunenburg, one of only two urban communities in North America designated as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Join a walking tour of the town, discovering its vibrant maritime history and this well-preserved architecture. Stop in Mahone Bay to admire its three centuries-old churches, capturing the quaint charm of this picturesque town. After your explorations, enjoy dinner in Mahone Bay at a delightful local restaurant, savoring fresh seafood and regional specialties. Return to Halifax, filled with wonderful memories of the South Shore's breathtaking landscapes!

August 8, 2025 - Friday

Halifax to Digby

Journey to the Annapolis Valley, starting with a visit to Grand Pré National Historic

Lobster Barns & Pots

Site, where you'll learn about the Acadian people and their rich history. Successes and struggles are illuminated through engaging displays, a splendid Victorian garden, and a Memorial Church. The site is a monument to Acadian culture and deportation. Next, enjoy a delightful wine tasting at a local winery, sampling some of the finest wines produced in the valley. Afterward, explore the charming town of Wolfville for lunch on your own. In the afternoon, visit a local brewery for a beer tasting, discovering the craft beer scene of the Annapolis Valley. This day promises a delightful mix of history, wine, craft beer, and stunning natural beauty!

August 9, 2025 - Saturday

Digby and the Surrounding Area

Immerse yourself in the rich gardening history at the Annapolis Royal Historic Gardens, showcasing beautifully designed landscapes. Our highlights today include a Pine Forest & Native Plant Garden, an Acadian House & Garden, a Governor's Garden, Victorian Garden, and a modern Innovative Garden. There are several significant plant collections, including the largest rose collection in Eastern Canada. Next, visit the Port Royal National Historic Site to learn about the early French settlers and their contributions to the region. From kitchen and forge to the Artisan's quarters and trading room, each room has a function. Additionally, as you explore, you'll likely meet a French colonist. Sit and have a chat with them as they share their work and personal stories, including their friendship with the Mi'kmaq. As a group, we will dine in either Annapolis Royal or Bear River, a unique tidal village built on stilts.

Prince Edward Island

After lunch, continue to explore the area at your own pace, soaking in the beautiful surroundings. B | D

August 10, 2025 - Sunday

Digby to St. Andrews, NB

Embark on a ferry ride across the Bay of Fundy to Saint John, New Brunswick. Enjoy lunch on your own during the crossing. Upon arrival, enjoy an engaging City Tour, including a visit to the Saint John City Market. The Market building contains several shops on the ground level featuring all locally owned businesses. Travel to picturesque St. Andrews by the Sea, where you'll have free time to explore quaint streets and local shops. Historic Water Street was awarded the "Great Place in Canada" distinction by the Canadian Institute of Planners, and USA Today named Saint Andrews the best place to visit in Canada! Tonight, we will gather for a group dinner at our hotel, sharing stories and making memories from our daily adventures. B | D

August 11, 2025 - Monday

St. Andrews

Start with an exhilarating whale watching boat tour, where you may encounter humpback whales, minke whales, and even the elusive North Atlantic right whale. Your breath may be taken away if a whale breaches the ocean's surface, lunges out of the waves, and re-enters with a loud smack and plume of water. August is one of the best opportunities for spotting one of the 12 species of whales that visit Nova Scotia each year. After the tour, enjoy lunch on your own at a local eatery. In the afternoon, stroll through Kingsbrae Gardens, a stunning 27-acre garden featuring diverse plants and themed gardens. Tonight we gather for a group dinner at our hotel, the perfect opportunity to share photos and experiences reflecting on the wonders of the Bay of Fundy. B | D

August 12, 2025 - Tuesday

St. Andrews to Charlottetown, PEI

Your itinerary will be shaped by tide times today, offering unique experiences at Hopewell Rocks or along the scenic Fundy Trail Parkway. If time allows, marvel at the iconic rock formations at Hopewell Rocks, or enjoy breathtaking views along the Fundy Trail Parkway. A picnic lunch will be included. Cross the Confederation Bridge to Prince Edward Island and enjoy an included dinner at a local restaurant in Charlottetown. Settle in for your stay, ready to explore the charm of this remarkable destination. B | Boxed Lunch | D

August 13, 2025 - Wednesday

Prince Edward Island

Start your day with a guided walking tour of Charlottetown, exploring key historical sites and learning about its role in Confederation. Afterward, enjoy free time for lunch in Victoria by the Sea, a charming village with delightful cafés and shops. In the afternoon, visit Green Gables Heritage Place, the famous home of Anne of Green Gables. This is where images from the blockbuster 1908 novel blend with the real-life experiences of local author Lucy Maud Montgomery, who drew inspiration from the idyllic farmstead and its red woodland pathways. Next, visit Cavendish Beach, known for its beautiful sandy shores and striking red cliffs. Stop at PEI Preserves to shop for local jams and jellies before gathering for
